

Award Sponsorships with Year-Round Benefits

Each year PATH Intl. recognizes truly outstanding humans and equines who exemplify the spirit of the EAAT industry. Sponsors are invited to introduce and present the awards to the winners.

$10,000 James Brady Professional Achievement Award ($19,000+ value including Gold Level Sponsor Benefits)

The James Brady Professional Achievement Award is the highest honor PATH Intl. bestows each year. This award recognizes the contributions made by an EAAT industry professional (occupational therapist, physical therapist, educator, psychologist, riding instructor, executive, program coordinator and others) to the field. Contributions have been, but are not limited to, areas such as research, publication, public relations and program development. The award recipient will be presented "The Helper," a bronze sculpture of a horse, rider and sidewalker, at the PATH International Conference and Annual Meeting Awards Banquet.

Professional Association of Therapeutic
Horsemanship International

History

Since 1969, PATH Intl. (formerly NARHA) has provided equine-assisted activities and therapies (EAAT) programs in the United States and internationally. Thanks in part to the medical community's growing awareness of the benefits of the services provided by PATH Intl.'s formally accredited programs, our membership has now expanded to more than 8,000 individual members and 800 centers. Each year, dozens of centers initiate new programs and more than 42,000 individuals with special needs benefit from activities that include therapeutic riding, hippotherapy, equine-assisted psychotherapy, driving, interactive vaulting and competition.

Mission

PATH Intl. changes and enriches lives by promoting excellence in equine-assisted activities and therapies.

Vision

PATH Intl. is a global authority, resource and advocate for equine-assisted activities and therapies and the equines in this work that inspire and enrich the human spirit.
