• For People: Safety, Confidence, Communication, Independence, Horsemanship skills and knowledge, Balance, Posture, Alignment, Stamina, Work out, Assertiveness, Vocabulary, Acceptance, Respect, Patience, Boundaries and space, Relationships – positive and healthy, Empowers, Gives Value, Sportsmanship, Responsibility
• Increases positive emotions, Gives common ground, Healing, Equality, Kindness, Work Ethic, Joy, Positive self-worth, Positive Behavior, positive experiences, All that truly goes into caring for horses, Social skills, Being present in the moment, Team work
Benefits of lessons:

- For The Horses: Boundaries and spacing, Alternative to mounted lessons / vaulting / driving, Team Work, Variety, Work on ground manners, Patience, change of pace, still getting attention and love, people being present in the moment with them, have a job

How this can Benefit?

- Think about the clients that this lesson format can help and who it is already helping at your center:
  - Mental Health clients
  - For the Clients you may not have what is need to have mounted safely but ground lesson may benefit them better instead
  - Reading groups, leader training groups
  - Who else can you think of?

How to get participants and their families and/or care givers on board with Ground lessons?

- Talk with them about what participants will get out of the lessons
- The goals that will be set for each individual both short term and long term
- How this lesson form will help the participant
- The participants will get hands on time each week with the horses
