2. The nominee has been involved in the EAAT industry for at least 10 years.
3. The nominee has not previously won the James Brady Professional Achievement Award.
4. The nominee cannot self-nominate.
5. The nominee cannot currently sit on the PATH Intl. Board of Trustees .

Award Criteria:

1. The nominee is regarded as demonstrating the highest integrity and ethical behavior.
2. The nominee has proven leadership and dedication within the EAAT industry through delivery of service, educational contribution and promotion of the industry at all levels.
3. The nominee has demonstrated ability to bring innovative ideas to fruition.
4. The nominee demonstrates the ability to develop and implement innovative, creative and effective organizational leadership strategies.
5. The nominee is able to create and nurture valuable collaborations and partnerships both within and outside of PATH Intl. to advance the work of EAAT, which result in tangible benefits to the community.
6. The nominee enhances the success and knowledge of other members of the association and its leaders.
7. The nominee works across disciplines and organizational structure to develop transformational solutions.

Award Judging:

The James Brady Professional Achievement Award will be selected by a judging panel of five members representing a variety of PATH Intl. members such as life members, past award winners, individual members, and board members. The chair of the committee will be approved by the PATH Intl. CEO.

At the discretion of the judges, the James Brady Professional Achievement Award will not necessarily be awarded each year. The nomination must meet all of the criteria to be considered.
