Update as of July 1, 2019: The PATH Intl. Registered Therapeutic Riding Instructor certification program will be available to instructor candidates until December 30, 2020.

October 31, 2019 is the LAST DATE that PATH Intl. Registered instructor applications will be accepted. After this date, instructor candidates will need to follow PATH Intl. Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor (CTRI) certification processes.

MAINTAINING CERTIFICATION AFTER DECEMBER 31, 2020

In response to a call from the PATH Intl. membership to elevate the professionalism of PATH Intl. credentials and the equine-assisted activities and therapies (EAAT) industry in general, PATH Intl. is pursuing third-party accreditation from NCCA of the Registered Therapeutic Riding Certification. The PATH Intl. Credentialing Council has developed the PATH Intl. Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor (CTRI) certification in accordance with third-party accreditation standards to replace the current registered therapeutic riding instructor certification.

The PATH Intl. Registered Therapeutic Riding Instructor certification will be phased out and replaced by the PATH Intl. Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor (CTRI) certification starting January 1, 2021.

Instructors who have earned PATH Intl. Registered Therapeutic Riding Instructor certification have the opportunity to transition to the PATH Intl. CTRI credential via the PATH Intl. CTRI Credential Transition Process.

All registered instructors must transition to the PATH Intl. CTRI credential no later than December 31, 2020, in order to maintain active PATH Intl. therapeutic riding instructor credentials into 2021.

CPR/FIRST AID REQUIREMENTS

Candidates are required to be certified in Adult & Child CPR and basic first aid to be eligible for PATH Intl. certifications. CPR and first aid certifications issued by recognized organizations will be accepted.

PATH Intl. Certified Professionals are advised to continually maintain Adult & Child CPR and basic first aid certifications to support centers with which they are affiliated to meet PATH Intl. Mandatory Standards, as well as part of their personal emergency response preparedness plan.
Candidates will gain access to the Phase I online courses and exams once their instructor application has been processed. The exams will be graded through CourseWebs, a learning management system, and results will be sent to the candidate immediately via email. Candidates must achieve passing scores on all online exams to complete Phase I of certification and receive an instructor in training (IT) letter. If a candidate allows his or her exam to expire or fails to pass an exam, the candidate may purchase an exam retake by calling PATH Intl. or by visiting the PATH Intl. online store.

- Standards Course: valid for 60 days, $20 exam fee to retake
- Instructor Self-Study: valid for 180 days, $25 fee to retake

Please choose from the following options to purchase an exam retake:
- Call PATH Intl., pay the retake fee over the phone with credit card. This method is highly recommended as it is faster than purchasing the exam online.
- Purchase exam retake in the PATH Intl. online store with a credit card (www.pathintl.org). Note: it will take about three business days before you can access your exam again if you purchase the exam online.

After payment is processed, candidate will be registered for the exam. Confirmation will be given via email notification from CourseWebs. Complete exam retake and submit answers on CourseWebs for grading.

ACCOMMODATIONS

An accommodation is an adjustment or an adaptation of a component or components of the registered instructor certification process in order to meet the special needs of a candidate.

Reasonable accommodations may be granted to qualified individuals with known disabilities, unless doing so would result in a fundamental change to the certification criteria, create an undue hardship or cause a direct threat to health or safety.

Requests for an accommodation to any part of the process must be made in writing by the candidate and submitted to PATH Intl. All requests for accommodation must be accompanied by a letter from a physician (with letterhead and physician’s handwritten signature) verifying the diagnosis and defining the candidate’s limitations to help PATH Intl. determine appropriate, reasonable accommodations on an individual basis. Accommodation requests should be submitted with the initial instructor application. An accommodation request may be submitted after the instructor application has been received by PATH Intl., but sufficient processing time should be provided prior to the intended date of certification. Please allow up to 60 days to receive accommodation request results in all cases.

For more information please contact PATH Intl.

*PATH Intl. and affiliated centers are not responsible for refunding OSWC registration fees or travel expenses in the event that an accommodation request is submitted with insufficient processing time.

PATH INTL. EVENT CODE OF CONDUCT

PATH Intl. is committed to providing a safe, professional and inclusive experience for all individuals participating in PATH Intl. events. All attendees at PATH Intl. events are expected to conduct themselves with integrity in a cooperative and courteous manner and not engage in disruptive behavior, disorderly conduct or intentionally interfere in the freedom of expression of others.

Expectations include, but are not limited to:
- Support a welcoming and positive environment
- Respect the views of others
- Engage positively in group conversations and/or activities
- Encourage redirection of negative behaviors, responses or communication

Disruptive behavior or disorderly conduct compromises the learning environment that attendees and PATH Intl. representatives have invested their time and money to attend. “Disruptive behavior” or “disorderly conduct” means behavior that a reasonable presenter or attendee would view as intentionally interfering with normal event functions or activities. Examples include, but are not limited to:
- Persistently speaking or commenting without being recognized or interrupting other speakers
- Behavior that distracts from the subject matter or discussion
- Refusal to comply with faculty/presenter direction, including refusal to work in a group
- Behavior that has a negative impact on the learning environment
- Audibly using a cell phone during a classroom session (unless as an assistive device)
- In extreme cases, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults
In cases where an attendee conducts themselves in a manner that detracts from a respectful and conducive learning environment, PATH Intl. representatives will provide a warning to communicate the specific concerns about the attendee’s conduct. If the attendee does not appropriately respond to sufficiently ameliorate the situation, PATH Intl. representatives are authorized to excuse that attendee from the activity by, but not limited to, the following:

1) Temporary or total dismissal from the room in which the PATH Intl. activity is being held
2) Temporary or total dismissal from the facility or grounds hosting the PATH Intl. event
3) Temporary or total dismissal from the PATH Intl. professional event

Dismissal from a PATH Intl. event may result in forfeiture of registration fees, certificate of participation or completion and/or certification results.

Certification Eligibility

All candidates MUST be able to provide BOTH of the following to the host site 30 days prior to the date of certification in order to proceed with PATH Intl. Registered Instructor certification testing.

1) A valid IT letter – IT letters are valid for 12 months from the date of issue or until December 30, 2020— whichever comes first. Candidates without a valid IT letter will be considered INELIGIBLE for certification.
2) Completed documentation of teaching hours – Candidates who cannot supply documentation of 25 full hours of mounted, group instruction of individuals with disabilities will be considered INELIGIBLE for certification.

Resubmission Process

Resubmission is offered for instructor candidates who are found not to meet criteria of one or more components of the registered level certification process. An official results letter stating resubmission options will be sent to candidates via U.S. mail. Candidates have 12 months from the date of their official results letter to resubmit. Failure to resubmit the necessary information prior to the resubmission expiration date or December 30, 2020— whichever comes first—will result in cancellation of a candidate’s application.

Withdrawal Policy

Candidates who choose to withdraw from one or both of the components during the on-site certification event are not eligible for video resubmission and will be required to attend another on-site certification event to resubmit for each component from which they withdrew. Refunds are not issued in the event of a withdrawal, and the candidate will be responsible for all registration fees and expenses associated with attending an additional on-site certification. No certification results will be released until the candidate has successfully resubmitted at an on-site certification event and has been found to meet the criteria for registered instructor status.

Appeal Process
If a candidate is found to not meet the criteria for PATH Intl. Registered Instructor Status and would like to appeal his or her on-site certification results, a written request for an appeal may be submitted to PATH Intl. The appeal request must:

- Be submitted within 15 business days of written notification of certification results from PATH Intl.
- Specifically refer to the criteria cited as not met in the evaluation
- Provide explanation as to how the candidate believes he or she has met the criteria

Video resubmission results are not eligible for appeal.

The PATH Intl. Riding Certification Subcommittee will review the original application, examination and certification results to determine if the candidate’s certification results will be upheld or overturned. It may take up to 60 days to review an appeal. This is not a guaranteed time frame.

If the candidate disagrees with the riding certification subcommittee’s decision, the candidate may appeal in writing to the PATH Intl. Certification Oversight Committee. The appeal to the oversight committee must be made in writing and submitted to PATH Intl. within 30 business days of receipt of written notification from the PATH Intl. Riding Certification Subcommittee.

The certification oversight committee will review the original application materials, examination and certification results to determine if the candidate’s certification results will be upheld or overturned. Updated or new information will not be taken into consideration. Decisions of the PATH Intl. Certification Oversight Committee will be final.

ON-DEMAND CERTIFICATION POLICY

If a candidate experiences significant hardship locating a certification event within his or her travel radius, budget or weight requirements, PATH Intl. offers the option of on-demand certification. Candidates must contact PATH Intl. to request and receive approval for this option. The candidate must have completed all Phase I requirements and the on-site workshop to be eligible for an on-demand certification. Once the candidate has received approval, he or she will be responsible for contacting a PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Center and working with the center rep to locate and arrange travel for the lead and associate evaluators. The candidate is responsible for reimbursing travel expenses and compensating the evaluators for their time. Payments should be made through the center, not directly to the evaluators.

Please contact PATH Intl. for more information about the on-demand certification option.

CANCELLATION POLICY

If for any reason a candidate fails to complete the Phase I or Phase II processes within the allotted time frames, the candidate’s application will expire and the candidate will need to begin the application process over again. No refunds of application or membership fees will be provided.

INSTRUCTOR APPLICATION REFUND POLICY

PATH Intl. Instructor Applications will only be refunded if a written request is made via mail or email, Attn: Certification Department. The written request must be received by PATH Intl. within five business days of the received date of the application. Please include the following in the written request: name, member number, address, phone number and reason for refund. If access has already occurred to the on-line courses a refund will not be given. Refunds will be issued in the original form of payment. If a credit card is used for the application fee and not available for credit, a check will be issued for the refunded amount. Merchandise or materials purchased with the instructor application submission will be considered under the returns/refund policy. PATH Intl. Membership is non-refundable; please see the memberships refund policy on the PATH Intl. website, www.pathintl.org.

PERSONAL HORSES AT CERTIFICATION

Upon request, candidates may be permitted to bring their own horse to ride at the certification event IF the host site can appropriately accommodate outside horses and is comfortable having outside horses on their property. Allowance of this type of accommodation is entirely at the discretion of the host site.

Candidates looking to bring a personal horse to certification must submit a written request to the host site at least 30 days prior to the workshop/certification. All fees and expenses incurred for transportation and boarding are the responsibility of the candidate.
